PROSPECTUS OF THE "NATIONAL MON-UMENT,"

A weekly journal to be published in Washington. under the sanction of the Washington National Monument Society.

JAMES C. PICKETT, EDITOR AND PUBLISHER.

JAMES C. PICKETT, EDITOR AND PUBLISHER.

The Monument is intended to be a literary, agricultural, and miscellaneous paper. It will contain selections of the literature of the day—the best that can be found in American and English publications; interesting scientific articles, embracing mechanics; foreign and domestic news; a synopeis of the proceedings of Congress, and every thing that such a journal might be expected to contain, with the exception of party politics, which will be at all times most rigorously excluded.

The Monument will be published for the express and the sole purpose of aiding in the erection of the noble column now rising on the banks of the Potomac, in honor of the Father of his Country, and which every one who venerates the name of Washington would rejoice to see completed. After deducting out of the subscription the expenses of the journal proposed to be published, the remaining funds will be faithfully applied, and without reserve, to the purpose indicated. The aid, therefore, of all who are willing to contribute to so patriotic an object, and one so entirely national, is carnestly requested. By subscribing to the Monument, a valuable journal at a low price may be obtained, while it will be doing something, at the same time, towards completing that majestic memorial of the Mation's gratitude.

The Board of Managers recommend Mr. Pickett, formerly Fourth Auditor of the Treasury and Charge d'Affairs to Feru, who proposes to celit and publish the Monument journal, as one well qualified to perform the duties of editor, and to conduct the paper fathfully, and satisfactorily to the subscribers. They assure their fellow-citizens that this enverprise is not a speculation got up for individual emolument. Mr. Pickett will make the experiment with his own means and at his own risk; if successful, he will receive nothing more, and he asks nothing more, than a very moderate compensation for his services. Not one dollar, therefore, of the direct subscription to the erection of the Monument will be, i to the support of the paper, nor the Society in any manner held pecuniarily responsible.

To give the public an idea of what may be done with the journal it is proposed to publish, it may be stated that a list of fifty thousand paying subscribers, at two dollars each, will yield an annual net profit of from fifty to sixty thousand dollars.

The postmasters, and secretaries of all organized bodies throughout the Union, are respectfully requested to act as agents in obtaining subscriptions, thus aiding the great object of our exertions.

As all editors and publishers, on account of the object for which the Monument newspaper will be established, must wish it to succeed, it is hoped that they will contribute to its success by publishing this prospectus.

All moneys will be remitted, and all letters and moneys addressed prepaid, to the general agent of the Monument Society, Hon. Elisha Whittlessy, Washington.

Oppicas.—Millard Fillmore, exofixio President; Arch. Henderson, First Vice President, Walter Lenox, (Mayor of Washington,) Second Vice President; Thos. Carbery, Third Vice President; J. B. H. Smith, Treasurer; Geo. Watterston, Secretary.

Board of Managers.—Winfield Scott, N. Towson, Thos. Munroe, W. A. Bradley, P. E. Fendall, Walter Jones, Thomas Biagden, Peter Force, W. W. Seaton, M. F. Maury, T. Hartley Crawford, Benj. Ogle Tayloe, Elisha Whittlessy.

Terms.—The Monument will be printed on a double-royal sheet—the paper and type being of the best quality—and in quarto form, containing sixteen large pages, that it may be more easily preserved. The price will be two dollars per annum, payable on the receipt of the second number. The nature of the suterprise not admitting of any credit, none can be given.

Societies and clubs will be furnished with the Monument on the following terms: 3 copies for $5.5 copies, $8; 10 copies, $15; &c.

Those who are disposed to patronise the Monument are requested to forward their names to the Genoral Agent, without delay. The first number will be published early copies, $15; &c.

Those who are disposed to patronise the MONUMENT are requested to forward their names to the General Agent, without delay. The first number will be published early in May, and the second on the second day of August, and weekly thereafter; time being allowed for the Prospectus to be circulated, and for the agents to make returns. As all subscribers will be contributors to the Monument itself, their names will be published in the itself, their names will be published in the paper. Washington, April 23, 1851.

No exhibitor of Agricultural Implements at the above named Fair, having received one-half the amount of premiums awarded us on the different kinds of Implements and Machines, it is conclusive evidence that ours were considered the best and most valuable on exhibition.

At the great Fair of the Maryland Institute, for the promotion of the Mechanic Arts, held in Baltimore in October and November, 1850, the first premium (a heavy Silver Medal) was awarded to Exra Whitman, ir., for the largest and best display of Agricultural Implements. Also first premium (another Silver Medal) for his improved Wrought Iron Railway Horse Power, which was made for exhibition at the World's Fair, in London, in May, 1851.

Our stock this season will be the largest ever offered in this city, and probabily the largest in the world, consisting of more than 3,000 Ploughs, 250 Threshing Machines, 1500 Califarators, Easping Machines, Wheat Drills, Corn and Colton Presses, together with every article which a farmer or planter could wish in the prosecution of his purcuits; all of which will be sold on reasonable terms, at wholesale or retail.

Newark Academy.

By a late re-organization of this department of Delaware College, the Board of Trustees have taken measures to place it upon a new and improved foundation, and to endow it with advantages possessed by few similar institutions in the country. The Academy, heretofore merged in the College, and of course subjected to all the evils which have been found to attend the annigumation of the two departments in the same building, and under the same government, now enjoys the privilege of a separate establishment, without losing those which result from its relation to the College proper. elation to the College proper.

A large and elegant edifice, with all the necessary fix-

A large and elegant editice, with all the necessary fixtures of a complete boarding establishment, has been erected and furnished, in which the students of the Academy board, under the immediate charge of the Principal and his Assistants; and all its exercises are conducted on a system of its own, uninterrupted by the interests or operations of the other department. The furniture of the study-recens and dormitories has been chosen with peraliar reference to comfort and convenience for study; and no expense has been spared in providing the apparatus necessary to render the means of instruction complete;
giving to Newark Academy facilities for private study and comfortable accommodation of students, fully equal to those afforded by many of our colleges.

From its intimate relation to the College, students of the Academy enjoy many advantages not generally ob-those afforded by many of our coneges.

From its intinuits relation to the College, students of the Academy enjoy many advantages not generally obtained at institutions of this kind. Those who wish to pursue some particular branch which falls more properly within the College course, may be admitted to recite in any of the College classes. Students also of proper age and discretion, by recommendation of the Principal, and permission of the Faculty, may enjoy the use of the College Library without additional charge. Admission also may be had to the Lectures, and such other privileges of the College as can be profitably enjoyed by academical students.

The charge for Boarding, Washing, Fuel, Light, &c., with tuition in the English, Latin, and Greek, is seventy dollars for the Summer Session, and seventy-five for the Winter Session. The only extras are one dollar per session for incidental expenses, and a fee of eight dollars for Modern Languages, and a fee of five dollars for praying, from those who enter these classes. The sessions and vacations of the Preparatory Department are the same as those of the College.

Wilmington Board in the city of Wilmington, entirely beyond the restlad portions of the town. The uniform healthfulness of the location may be toferred from the fact that, since the establishment of the School, about the fact that, since the establishment of the School, about the fact that, since the establishment of the School, about the fact that, since the establishment of the School, about the state occurred among the pupils, and not a single death. The course of instruction includes, besides the ordinary English branches, Natural Philosophy, Chemistry, Physiology, History, Rhestorie, the various branches of Mathematics and the Latin, Greek, and French Languages. Particular attention is paid to the higher Mathematics and their application to Mechanics and Engineering; the latter and Surveying are taught practically by field operations, with the use of appropriate instruments. Lectures on Natural Philosophy and Chemistry, in which all the important principles are illustrated by experiments, are regularly delivered before the students.

As the object is to make the instruction as thorough and practical as possible, no expense has been spared in providing suitable apparatus. It is believed that, in this respect, the Institution will compare favorably with any similar one in the country. A carefully selected library of more than one thousand volumes, containing works on the various branches of Literature and Science, furnishes ample reading matter, while a Laboratory, fully supplied with apparatus and tests, contains all that is necessary for practical instruction in Chemical Manipulation.

The school year commenced on the third Second-day (Monday) of the Ninth month, (September,) and is divided into four quarters of eleven weeks each, leaving a vacadion of two months, from about the middle of the Seventh month, fully, principal, willmington, bel.

THE TESTIMONY OF ONE OF OUR LAWYERS.—
I'ME TESTIMONY OF ONE OF OUR LAWYERS.—
I'ME JAS. L. HAMILTON.—Dear Sig: Although the number and respectability of the testimonials of which you are already in possession, as to the efficacy of your Medicine, "THE GREAT VA. REMEDY," in the diseases which it is designed to cure, are sufficient, in my opinion, to establish its reputation, and secure for it such patromage as will adequately reward you for the discovery of so inestimable a Medicine—yet the great benefit which I have derived from its employment in the cases of several friends, to whom I had recommended it, constrain me to contribute, for such use as you may think proper to make of it, this formal schoolwhole with the sanitary virtues. My own case was Dyspepsia of long duration, and very aggravated in its character, manifested by an almost total destruction of the digestive functions, great debility, nervonstaces, cuacitation, and impaired appetite, with poin, and a burning sensation in the left side of the chest, palpitation of the heart, vertigo and congection in the head, and many other symptoms indicative of the worst type of the disease, by the use of three or four bottles of your preparation, been entirely relieved. The cases of my friends, in which your Medicine was taken, were Dyspepsia, Chronic Headache, and Sore Throat, in all of which it proved efficacious, after the trial of a vast number of other remedies without benefit. Your medicine is as pleasant to the taste as a cordial, and in my experience corrects all derangement of the stomach, restores the wasted or enfechled energies of the digestive organs, and imparts strength and reanimation to the whole system.

Very respectfully, yours, &c.,

CAMBRIDGE, January 25, 1845.

Gentlemen—In reply to your letter, I can with great sincerity say, that I entertain a very high opinion of the recent Exchequer Reports. In my judgment they are not excelled by any cotemporaneous Reports, in learning, ability, or general utility and interest. The cases decided are discussed with great care, and expounded with uncommon force. I scarcely know of any volumes which I deem of more importance or value for a Professional Library.

FURNISHING MAIL LOCKS AND KEYS.

Poer OFFICE DEPARTMENT,

March 14, 1861.

I T being derivable to substitute locks and keys of some other kind for those now in use for the mail service of the United States, specimen locks and keys, with proposals to furnish the same, will be received and considered at the Post Office Department until the first day of July next. The different locks will be submitted to a commission for examination and report. Upon this report, contracts will, as soon as practicable, be entered into for fornishing such locks and keys for four years, with the right on the part of the Postmaster General, for the time being, to extend and continue the contract in force for an additional term of four years, by giving to the contractor a written notice to that effect, not more than nine nor less than six months before the termination of the first term of four years.

With a view of procuring the best lock at the lowest price, no kind of lock is prescribed as a standard, the Department relying for a selection on the mechanical skill and ingenuity which a fair competition, now invited, may develop. It is, however, proper to state that a lock suitable for the mail service should possess the following qualities, viz: durability, uniformity, lightness, and strength.

For the purpose of displacing simultaneously all the mail locks and keys now in use, about thirty thousand new locks and twenty thousand keys adopted thereto will be required to be furnished by the contractor within seven months after the contract shall have been entered into; afterwards the annual supply will depend on the duraction of the locks and keys adopted, as well as the increase of the mail service; but it will probably never exceed in amount three thousand of the former and one thousand of the latter.

No lock will be considered if it be like any already in general use; nor will any one with whom the contract may be made be allowed to make, sell, or furnish, any lock or key similar to those contracted for for any other purpose or use than that of the Post Office Department.

The kind of lock adopted must be patented, and the patentee will be required, on entering into contract, to make an assignment of his patent for the exclusive use and benefit of the Department, if the Postmaster General shall deem such requirement essential to the integests of the service. In case of the failure of the contractor at any time to failff sithfully the terms and conditions of his contract, the Postmaster General shall have the right or the party or parties contracting and specimens offered, the Postmaster General shall have the right or or the failure of the contract anew with any other party or parties contract. In the proposals and specimens offered, the Postmaster of an order. He reserves, therefore, the right of contracting with different individu spection of the looks and keys, and also for guardiagainst their passing into improper hands; the terms these provisions to be arranged between the Department the successful bidder, if a bid should be accepted. No application will be considered if not accompanish with satisfactory evidence of the treasworthy character the bidder, and of his ability to fulfil the contract.

Letter from the Hon. Henry Clay.

Ashlard, 20th July, 1849.

Dear Sir: I wish to express to you the gratification I derived on receiving the July number of the Merchants' Magazine and Commercial Review, from viewing your portrait in the beginning, and from reading your address to your friends at the end of it. When we feel under obligations to those who have contributed to our information and amusement, we are naturally desirous to possess all the knowledge of them, of their appearance, of the features of their countenance, and of the character and habits of their mind, which we can acquire. You have placed your numerous readers (at least you have me, if I may not speak for them) under those obligations; and the number of your valuable work now before me, in some degree, satisfies the desire to which I have alluded.

I have become quite familiar with the Magazine and Review, and have no hesitation in expressing my humble opinion that it is eminently entitled to the public regard and support. It collects and arranges, in good order, a largu amount of valuable statistical and other information, highly useful not only to the merchant, but to the statesman, to the cultivator of the earth, to the manufacturer, to the mariner, in short, to all classes of the business and reading community.

Entertaining this opinion, I am glad that it has been, and hope that it may continue to be, liberally patronized.

Offering you cordial assurances of my estoum and regard, I am truly your friend and obedient servant.

Extract of a letter from Hon. Millard Fillmore.

"I have read it (Merchants' Magazine) with a good deal of attention, and have no hesitation in saying that I think it one of the most valuable periodicals that was ever published. To the merchant it seems quite indispensable, and to the statesman and man of general information almost equally desirable. It is a grand repository of useful facts and information, which can be found nowhere so well digested and so accessible as in these numbers. I only regret that I do not own the whole work."

Letter from the Hen. Thomas H. Bester 1997.

Letter from the Hon. Thomas H. Benton.

Wasiinotron Crit, April 20, 1849.

Mr. Freeman Hunt.—Sir: I owe you many thanks for the opportunities I have had to read the Merchants' Magazine, and have found it in reality to be a magazine, and that well replenished, of all the useful matter which the title would imply, and presented with a fullness and clearness which delights while it instructs. It is, in fact, a merchants' magazine in the large acceptation of the term—merchants who go between nations, whose large operations bring many departments of knowledge, and a view of the state of the world, into daily requisition. But it is not the great merchant only, but the one of more modest, but, nevertheless, of most useful operations—the merchant of the interior also—who will find this magazine to abound with the information the pursuit of his business and the elevation of the mercanile character requires. Nor is its utility at all confined to merchants, but extends to the legislator and diplomatist, and to all who are charged with managing the affairs of the nation. For myself, I have found it most useful to me in my senatorial labors, and have been in the habit for many years of carefully consulting it.

Very respectfully, sir, your obedient servant,

THOMAS H. BENTON. Letter from the Hon. Thomas H. Benton.

Letter from Hon. Wm. H. Seward.

My Dear Sir: Have the goodness to place my name on your list of subscribers for the Merchants' Magazine. I regard it as an invaluable work for the use of all who would understand not merely commercial operations in this extending country, but the fiscal and commercial questions involved in the administration of the government.

I am, with great respect, your humble servant. Freeman Hunt, esq. WILLIAM H. SEWARD. The Merchants' Magazine is published monthly, at 142 Fulton street, New York, by Freeman Hunt, and furnished to subscribers for Five Dollars a year, in advance, mar 24

WISE & BROTHER, Manufacturers of Bondoir, Grand, and Square Pianos, request those who would be assured of a first class Plano, one that ladies can perform on with the greatest possible advantage—one that the touch can be instantly adjusted to the exact strength of the fingers and movement of music, one that will stand in concert tune, one that the tone will not become shrill and grating, that is chasts of style and elegantly made up of straight and regular curve lines, that will last an age—to give them a call. The ancient standing of the Baltimore Factory, and liberal patronage of citizens and others of the first order of artistic taste and science, conceded at once the most critical, have been fully anticipated. Their recently finished Grand Piano, minutely reviewed by the most accomplished civil engineers and master artists, has been denominated truly a Grand Piano; also, that their late Boudoir, for style, power, and compass of tone, is not surpassed, if equalled, in the world. An enlightened public sentiment has everywhere repudiated a reckless use of drugs in the treatment of disease; while intolerable sufferings and broken constitutions have imperatively demanded "Reform." A return from a wide and fatal departure from the simplicity of Nature's laws is called for, alike by a rational love of happiness and the deplorable exigencies of our condition. Hydropathy, or a scientific use of water as a restorative and curative agent, is a practical substitution of a simple and remarkaly efficacious mode of curing the sick; for that system of drugging, depleting, and cautorizing, which, in obtaining the mastery over disease, too frequently places the patient beyond the reach of further annoyance.
